Lowest-Cost International Payments for Higher Ed

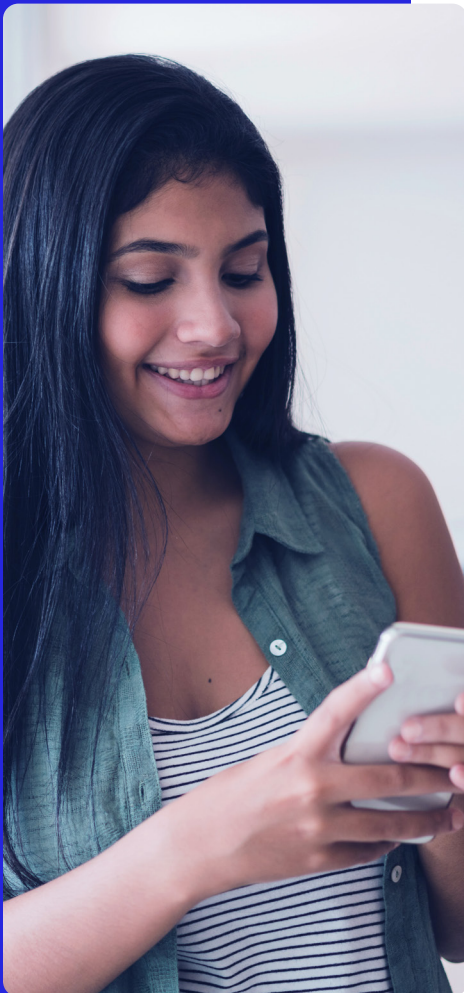

Accepting payments from international students just got easier with ACI and Paymytuition, powered by MTFX. With this partnership, higher ed institutions can now offer students comprehensive, low-cost international payments through a solution that allows you to begin accepting payments from more than 220 countries and territories in a matter of days.

The Market Challenge

Each year, more than one million students leave their home countries to attend universities or colleges in the U.S.¹ Until recently, these families were forced to endure high exchange rates when paying tuition. This placed unnecessary stress on families already feeling anxious about paying for tuition and sending their kids to study in a foreign country.

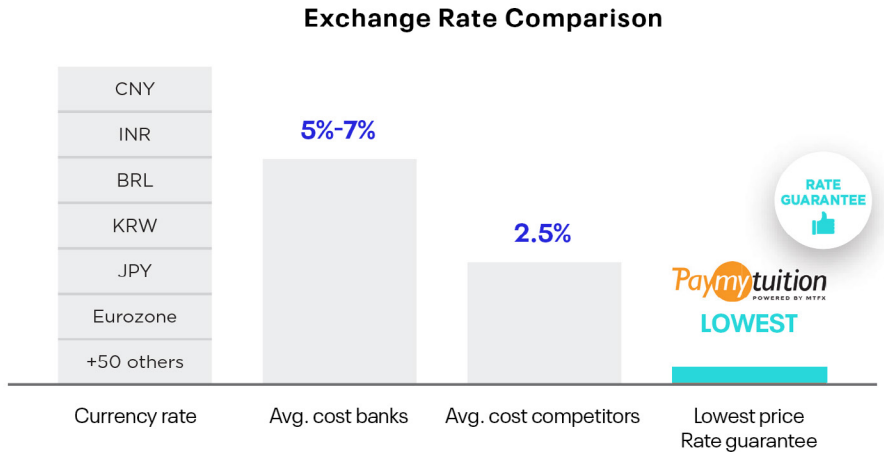

Begin accepting payments from more than 220 countries and territories in a matter of days.

The ACI Solution

This new solution offers these families the ability to save money on exchange rates and relieves the stress associated with making international tuition payments.

Save Money

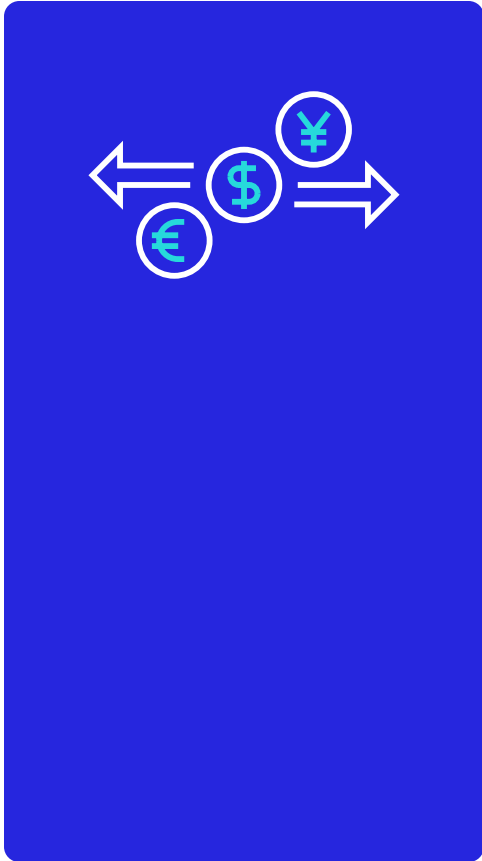

Paymytuition offers a rate guarantee not only against banks, but against all competitors.
